MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Defendant moves for a copy of the trial transcript and the sentencing transcript without charge. That motion is denied.

Defendant's counsel was furnished a copy of the transcripts to prosecute the appeal. We are unaware of authority to obtain additional copies. Because the defendant might not have that copy we contacted defendant's prior counsel, Jeffrey Steinback. Mr. Steinback advised that, although he no longer represented the defendant he had been in occasional contact with the defendant respecting various matters until fairly recently, and that he had sent copies of the transcripts to defendant three times: in January 2002, in June 2002, and again on January 7, 2003. The last copy was Mr. Steinback's office copy, and he no longer has one. Any one of those copies should suffice for defendant's purposes.
